

This application is a request to be on the ballot for the 2022-23 AGM Elections for Nelson Kootenay Lake Tourism Society.

The Nelson Kootenay Lake Tourism Society (NKLT) is a Destination Marketing Organization operating as the regions' tourism voice working in collaboration with its members, creating innovative and strategic marketing plans to attract visitors to its tourism amenities and communities. NKLT is a not for profit, member driven society governed by a Board of Directors.

Board Meetings:

Board Meetings are scheduled every six weeks, with 9 meetings per year. Board members are to attend a minimum of 7 meetings with the AGM as a mandatory meeting.

The board meets online through zoom, and when possible in person at various locations across the region.

Committees

- There are three committees that meet irregularly throughout the year, depending on the topic. Each member sits on one of the committees: Governance (bylaws and policies), Internal (finances and HR) or External (marketing and communications).
